Mandatory to Visible Display of Student ID Cards at Entry

Dear students of Serampore College,

We would like to remind you that wearing your student ID card is mandatory on the college campus, classrooms, and office. This is for the safety and security of everyone in the college.

Therefore, we request all students to wear their ID card visibly at all times during their stay on campus. Students without ID cards must report to the college office.

We appreciate your cooperation in this matter, and hope that together we can make Serampore College a safe and secure place for all.
